Feature Story:

Meet Our Team: We're featuring members of our talented team!

This month, our first issue of 2022, we are continuing to introduce you to our Advocates JDP team members.

To provide a meaningful introduction, we created some guiding questions for staff to answer. This month, we are introducing you to Georgia Kramer, MA. Georgia serves as the jail diversion clinician for the Framingham Police Department.

Meet Georgia Kramer:

What brought you to your role at Advocates?

I learned about the Jail Diversion Program while scrolling through online hiring platforms. After I submitted my application and resume, a member of the leadership team reached out to me and I was able to learn more about the role. I knew immediately I wanted to be a part of this amazing team.

What is challenging about your job?

The most challenging aspect of my job is seeing the same people in crisis over and over. I observe numerous barriers to services while in the field. Advocates works to combat these barriers with unique treatment approaches that, ideally, will increase treatment successes.

What encourages you to stay in your position?

I stay in my current position because I have one of the best jobs imaginable. It is such an honor to work alongside law enforcement, providing real-time support to individuals in crisis in our communities.
